The Handbook Of Psychic Cold Reading

Dedication

To my faithful djinn, familiar and constant companion, Dantalion, the seventy-first spirit of the Goetia. "His Office is to teach all Arts and Sciences unto any, and to declare the Secret Counsel of any one; for he knoweth the Thoughts of all Men and Women, and can change them at his Will. He can cause Love, and show the Similitude of any person, and show the same by a Vision, let them be in what part of the World they Will."

The Handbook Of Psychic Cold Reading

Introduction

Amid all I've learned studying the human mind throughout my life the fields that have never ceased to fascinate me are persuasion and psychic "cold" reading.

For the uninitiated, a cold reading happens when you are doing a psychic reading "cold," and without knowing anything about the person.

I've already written plenty on persuasion, influence, and mind control, but now I get to pursue the art of cold reading.

If you've ever been to a psychic and walked out of the reading in a glassy eyed state of awe then you know the impact of a powerful cold reading. It is as if someone looked at you like an open book and read you page by page. What is even more fun is to know that you can give the same type of reading for others whether or not you have psychic ability.

We're talking about the art called "cold reading," but for the public at large they will simply refer to you as a psychic.

Let me say that in truth learning the art of cold reading is much like learning to play the guitar; you can do a lot just by learning the basics, and there is no end to the depth of what you can learn if you continue your studies. Like learning the guitar, you can learn the basic chords and be quite successful and entertaining, or you can begin to study and practice the most advanced, detailed, and 'classical' methods to add to your proficiency.

I can truthfully say that with a very few meager skills of cold reading (and an extreme sense of daring) I've been able to impress and entertain groups of people for hours. Think of what is possible when you learn all that you can about cold reading!

The goal of this book, at the very least, is to give you a very basic beginning and many good tricks, tips, and pointers that will will make you look as psychic as any turban-wearing palm reader. I intend to give you enough useful information to go out and start reading palms, auras and cards with just a few short hours of study. Unlike most other cold reading systems I've also put in a very simple memory system that will make learning quick, easy, and fun.

You Don't Need To Be Psychic

It's true. To sound like a psychic, and even to get paid as a psychic, you don't have to be psychic. I've done it and I've taught other people to do it too.

I can imagine the vast range of emotional responses that statement might elicit from different types of people. Let me give you an idea of the types of responses I mean.

The cynical skeptic might find this book as proof that there is no such thing as psychic abilities. The cynical skeptic might learn the skills in this book and use them so that at the end of a reading he could make the other person as cynical and skeptical as he is. In so doing he could set back and bask in his self righteous superiority and believe he did the world a favor by destroying someone's dream.

The angry believer, being fully convinced in the truth of psychic phenomenon, might think this book sets out to disprove psychic ability. Instead, they could have chosen to read this book in order to sharpen their skills of delivery and make themselves a better reader.

The pious do-gooder could easily assume that I am encouraging people to con, fool and scam others out of their money and ruin their faith in humanity.

If you are reading this book with any of these aforementioned predispositions then it is recommended that you return the book at once, because you are surely missing the point.

The fact is that humans can be as amazing as they are annoying, and given an open mind and the right perspective anyone can learn these skills to help people and to improve their lives. That is my only hope.

Yes, you CAN be a “non-psychic psychic cold reader” and actually make people feel better than before they met you. Many psychics who consider themselves “real” use fear, doom and gloom to hook people into their reading service. To those people I have two words: “Bad Psychic!”

To avoid any problems doing readings (whether you have a sixth sense or not) it's always highly recommended that you let people know that what you do is for entertainment ONLY. Let's face it. You're going to have more fun and last much longer as a cold reader if people feel good after they worked with you. Please keep in mind that one of your primary goals as a reader is to help people feel good.
