

PUSS IN BOOTS

There lives a Miller. He has three sons. The man is old and he leaves the mill to his oldest son. He gives his don-

The young man is very poor. He only has a few coins in his pocket. That is all he has. He is so surprised that his cat can talk... He goes out and buys the boots and the bag for his cat. The cat dresses himself in his new boots. The cat puts a carrot in his leather bag, throws it over his shoulder and goes out over the fields. The cat is very clever!

He hides in the bushes waiting for rabbits. Look! Here they are. One rabbit is very silly and fat. The cat catches a fat rabbit.

But the cat doesn't want to give his master the rabbit. His young master is hungry and very sad... but no, the cat has big plans. The cat is really clever!

The cat takes the rabbit to the King. He presents it as a gift from his master. He says his master is not poor. He

“Thank you, Puss in Boots! Marquis de Carabas is very kind!” the King says.

The cat is very clever! He sees the King’s daughter. He bows. She smiles at the cat. He sees she is pretty and nice. The cat has big plans.

Every day the cat comes to the King’s palace. Every day he brings gifts from his master, Marquis de Carabas.
